

Books

When we talk about books, we usually divide them into different categories, so that the readers know what kind of book they can expect. These categories are called “genres”. The two most important categories are fiction and non-fiction. Fiction books contain stories which have not happened. Non-fiction books are about real people, things, places and events.

Fill in the table below with the correct genres. Then go online and try to find at least one example for each genre.

Q&A

Look at these words and prepare as many questions as you can, e.g.:
Who is the author? What is it about?

Then talk to a partner and ask these questions about a book your partner has read. Change roles.
