

Preparing to write a book review

(to be filled in during your visit to the library)

They say don't judge a book by its cover, but this is exactly what you are going to do.

😊 Choose one book from the EASY READER section that you like and guess what it's about. Some things like the author and the title are easy to find out, but for other things you need to use your imagination.

Titel:

Author:

Genre:

Place/Setting:

Read the blurb and skim through the book. Write a few sentences about what you think the plot of this book is about:

Why did you choose this book?
